Oil and Gas Lease Relinquishment Accepted

Pursuant to section 30(b) of the Mineral Leasing Act of February 25, 1920, 30 U.S.C. 187(b), as amended, the relinquishment of oil and gas lease (Serial number) in its entirety is accepted effective (Date).

In accordance with the regulations and the terms of the lease, the relinquishment is subject to the continued obligation of the lessee and surety to make payment of all accrued rentals or royalties and to place all wells on the lands relinquished in condition for suspension by authorized shut-in or abandonment, and to complete reclamation of the leased lands or surface waters adversely affected by lease operations in a timely manner after abandonment or cessation of oil and gas operations on the lease.

The lands embraced by the relinquished lease are:

_____
_____
_____

Containing _____ acres.
